ASIA EDUCATION LEADER COURSE

INTRODUCTION

ASIA EDUCATION LEADER COURSE

The aim of the AEL Course is to raise leaders (IMEP:

Internationally-Minded

Educational Professionals) with an international perspective who would be able to tackle Eastern Asia's educational problems.

Concentrating specifically on Eastern Asia, we are attempting to raise (1) Education researchers who are able to accurately analyze current problems in education, (2) Teacher leaders who are able to recognize educational problems and carry out their responsibilities for education in practice, (3) Education administrators who are able to incorporate educational reforms from all around the world in their perspective when making new policies. Registered students for the course will take approximately 15-day intensive courses during their long vacations at partner universities as learning sites.

The College of Education was established on August 1, 2002, with the mission of nurturing the nation's educators, academic leaders and researchers, at the same time providing them opportunities to develop into professionals in all aspect of the education industry, thus playing an important role in uplifting the professional standards of academia throughtout Taiwan.

The college aims to promote academic advancement by strengthening integrate educational research through intercollegiate, interdepartmental and interdisciplinary cooperation. With major facilities in the Jing Tang Building which houses the Department of Education, the Graduate Institute of Educational Administration and Policy, the Institute of Teacher Education, the Master of Education in School Administration, the Principal Preparation and Research Center, and the Chinese Tests and Educational Evaluation Research Center, While the Syuesih Building houses the Teacher In-Service Education Center.
